We help you work smarter with our flexible state-of the -art employment screening technology. Access web- based tools that simplify the employee background check process from instant employment background check products and FCRA compliance assistance to paperless solutions; our services allow you to facilitate cost effective and expedited employment screening services.

Data Integrity

Our diligent employment background screening capabilities provide important and current information to our clients. Criminal background checks are conducted at the source and not via third party agencies, a critical factor for an accurate employment background check. With relationships in over 3200 jurisdictions including federal, state, and Cities courthouses our employee background check programs can make the difference in helping ensure your candidates are who they say they are.

Clarity

Employment background screening reports are concise and easy to read in a format that you will understand we also prefer the report template provided by the client.

AXA Quality Assurance

We engage a strategy that encompasses both technology and investigative standards ensuring you of a thorough and timely background screening report. All standard point's assurance are implemented with each and every screening report. As applicant screening reports are received electronically, an investigator performs an audit of the order. Each report is inspected for discrepancies, potential red flags and compliance with federal and state law. Upon completion, the final report is not visible to the client until a subsequent audit is performed.

AXA Methodology

In conducting criminal background checks, we utilize a search methodology unmatched in the Industry, casting the widest possible net to locate potential applicant matches. Our search string is based on a unique formula offering our clients the highest level of scrutiny and the most concise background investigation in the industry.

AXA Client Support

AXA takes client service to a new level in the background screening industry. We believe that a single point of contact is important to implementing a candidate screening program that is right for you.
